19th Congress in Rome, Italy, September 19-23, 2021

Dear colleagues and friends,

I trust that during this year you continue to contribute with enthusiasm and energy to the field of drug monitoring and clinical toxicology.

I would like to encourage you to participate to the 19th IATDMCT Congress to be held in Rome, Italy September 19-22, 2021. The local organizing committee and "Symposia" are prepare to show you the best of Italy!!!

Our tireless efforts intend to make each one of you to feel welcome. The members of the scientific committee are preparing a diverse scientific program for a multitude of scientific interests. Moreover, the members of the local organizing committee will fulfill several organizational and social tasks. We also need to mention the show that will be offered by our colleagues from industry. They will update us on new instrumentation and new innovative methods to be used in our laboratories. I encourage you to attend and learn from their knowledge on using the most efficient instrumentation.

We expect you to upload your abstracts to be selected for oral or poster presentations. Abstracts submitted at the annual meeting will be peer reviewed and will be immediately published on acceptance in our journal Therapeutic Drug Monitoring. The publication of the abstract will ensure high visibility of the specific work and of the presenters and of their laboratories.

A special thanks to all attendees that will contribute to the vivid atmosphere during the Congress.

IATDMCT 2021 is offering a scientific platform for all registrants from all countries. The program includes pre-congress symposium on pharmaco-metrics and precision dosing in clinical trials. There are plenary lectures on new psychoactive substances, precision information technology in intensive care unit, and clinical importance and pharmacological utility of using non-invasive biomarkers in diagnosing dementia. There are envisioned many invited lectures, symposia, oral presentations, and research posters that will keep the attention of each special interest of our members.

It is my privilege to show you the Roman hospitality and the historical places.

See you in Rome!

Abstract Submission

Interested in presenting an oral or poster at IATDMCT 2021? A reminder that abstract submission closes on April 15, 2021.

IATDMCT Blog: Interview with Sarah Wille

In March we celebrate the achievements of women, so it's lovely that we have an exceptional woman responding our interview this month. Sarah Wille is a Judicial Expert Forensic Toxicologist, a specialist area of toxicology we don't often hear from in our interviews. Sarah has been involved with our Young Scientist committee and is also very active with our sister association, TIAFT.

Another great interview this month, read on....
