

Minutes of Alternative Sampling Strategies Committee

23-Sept-2019 5-6pm

Attendance: Christophe Stove (vice chair), Begoña Delgado-Charro, Rafael Linden, Melanie Bailey
Birgit Koch (apologies), Herman Veenhof, Jan-Willem Alffenaar (chair)

1) Minutes Brisbane meeting:

Progress of the dried blood spot guideline was discussed during the committee meeting as well as candidacy for chair of the committee.

2) Chair/Vice chair of the committee

Jan-Willem and Christoph will both discontinued their position as chair and vice-chair respectively. Rafael Linden is willing to become chair of the committee. Jan-Willem accepted the position as vice chair for 1 year to support Rafael in his new role as chair of the committee. In 2020 (18th IATDMCT conference) position of vice-chair will become available.

3) Committee members

New members: Melanie Bailey and Herman Veenhof

An email will be sent to all committee members to ask about the continuation as committee member. Active participation of committee members is required (e.g. contribution to Compass)

4) Committee activities

The guideline on DBS development, analytical and clinical validation is published in TDM. It has been a lot of work but the results is to satisfaction of all contributing authors.

The new project for the committee will be to write a review article for the special issue of TDM on alternative sampling. This issue is to be published in February 2021. Deadline is anticipated to be in November 2020. Christophe Stove is Guest-Editor of this special issue.

The topic of the contribution of the committee to this special issue will be to draft a review on micro-sampling devices. The review will include a literature review to provide insight in application in clinical studies/patient care. In addition, we provide an overview of key characteristics of the different devices. The focuses will be on commercially available devices and devices that are in late stage of evaluation (i.e. evaluation for regulatory approval; FDA, CE mark)

@committee members: please send email to Rafael and Jan-Willem if your interested to contribute to this review.

5) Compass

Contributions to Compass were discussed. These contributions are typically about 1000 words, 5-10 references and table/figure as needed.
